THE NEW WORLD ORDER PSYCHOANALYZED by Kerth Barker, October 2011

"If you know your enemy and know yourself, you can win a hundred battles. If you only know yourself, but not your enemy you may win or lose. If you know neither yourself nor your enemy, you will be in peril." Sun Wu, The Art of Strategy

When I was a child I had an older relative whom everyone in the family seemed to respect, and yet they were also intimidated by him. He appeared to have some type of authority that I didn't understand. As I grew up I discovered that he was a member of a secret society of which insiders feared to speak. This secret group was described to me as the Society of Lucifer. It is what outsiders call the Illuminati. Although I was not fully initiated into this group, I was exposed to a knowledge of it. Over the years I’ve learned more and more about it. Be warned that what I have to say about this group is disturbing.

There is a great deal of misinformation deliberately put out about the Illuminati and the New World Order. In my youth I was taught basic facts by authoritative insiders. As an adult I have known others who have done meticulous research. This essay is a dose of reality about a world of illusions.

In the popular movie The Matrix the character Morpheous gives his young initiate Neo a choice. He can take the blue pill and go back to sleep or take the red pill and learn the truth. If you want to take the red pill, keep reading.

You’ve probably heard the expression “New World Order” spoken by every major political leader in the U.S. and Britain at one time or another. The origins of that phrase come from the Great Seal of the United States which can be seen on every one dollar bill. This Great Seal was designed by Freemasons and so it is filled with symbolic meaning. However that symbolic meaning can be interpreted in two completely different ways. Over time the original meaning has been altered by a secret society. The key to understanding how our American society has gone so wrong can be found in the interpretation of this powerful symbol.

CHRISTIAN-JUDAIC DEMOCRACY. Our Founding Fathers were Christians who believed in Democracy. Most of them were Freemasons as well. As Masons they were concerned with the interpretation of symbols. They would have viewed the Great Seal in this way. (This will be easier to visualize if you actually look at the Great Seal on a one dollar bill.)

The Eagle on one side of the Great Seal stands for freedom and authority. It holds thirteen arrows. The number thirteen, which is found repeated throughout the Great Seal, stands for the original thirteen colonies; also it stands for Jesus plus His twelve disciples. Furthermore, it is said that an early Masonic lodge had thirteen levels of training to become a master Mason, this reflects the Masonic training of the Founding Fathers. The eagle is said to symbolize a readiness for warfare, but the eagle faces the other way in the other claw to symbolize a preference for peace. Above the eagle is the six-pointed Star of David made up of a cluster of five-pointed stars. The Star of David represents the Judaic foundations of Christianity and the ancestry of the family of Jesus who descended from King David. Freemasons identify with the Knights Templar who used the five-pointed star to symbolize their Holy City of Jerusalem. The word "Jerusalem" or "YRSLM" has five letters and the five-pointed star symbolizes this city where Jesus achieved His status as Messiah. The five pointed star can also symbolize the five wounds of Christ. All this symbolism resonates with the Christian-Judaic moral code that is a foundation of American society. The eagle holds a banner in his beak which in Latin states "Out of Many, One." This refers to the idea that the many states of the Union come together to form one nation.

The other side of the Great Seal shows an incomplete pyramid. The pyramid signifies strength and duration. The pyramid has thirteen levels representing the founding thirteen states. The vacant capstone symbolizes the other states that will join the Union. In place of the capstone, at the zenith, is the all seeing eye of Providence floating in the sky. It shines within a triangle that represents the Holy Trinity. Above this are the words, "annuit coeptis" which from Latin translate to mean that Providence has approved of our undertaking. At the base of the Pyramid, written in Roman numerals, is the date 1776, which stands for July 4th, 1776 when the United States was founded. Below that, also in Latin, are the words "Novus Ordo Seclorum." When translated this means New Order of the Ages or New World Order. This New Order of the Ages represents the belief that an age of democracy has begun in America.

Christian-Judaic democracy is not practical in a society that values fairness, justice, and a common work ethic. Although the Founding Fathers understood the need for State and Religion to be separate, they also understood that Christian-Judaic morality was essential to American society. Because they believed in freedom of religious choice they selected a symbol for God that was not representative of merely one religious group. Hence, the All Seeing Eye of Providence rather than a Christian cross.

They drew their ideas for democracy from the British Parliament, Athenian democracy, the writings of John Locke, and the Iroquois nation that had a participatory democracy which lasted for more than eight hundred years. The New Order of the early United States was a spiritually moral society ruled by a democracy intended to last throughout the ages. This is the original meaning of the Great Seal.

OCCULT LUCIFERIAN PLUTOCRACY. The word "Luciferian" can have two different meanings. In Christian theology Lucifer refers to a fallen angel, Satan, the enemy of humanity. To early Masonic scholars, the word Luciferian referred not to Satan or the Devil but to a pre-Christian meaning of the word. The Ancient Greeks referred to the planet Venus as Lucifer, the light bearer. Certain modern philosophies take ideas from the classical, ancient world and apply them in new ways. In this neoclassical sense, Lucifer refers to enlightenment. For example, the Statue of Liberty, designed by Masons, is a depiction of Lucifer, the Light Bearer, bringing enlightenment to the world; but Lady Liberty is not a Satanic symbol. Freemasonry, Theosophy, and Lucis Trust (associated with the U.N.) are all neoclassical Luciferian philosophies. All these philosophies are globalist and there are legitimate criticisms that can be made about them. Yet whatever you think of these groups, their basic teachings do not involve worshipping Satan. Neoclassical Luciferianism is not the same thing as Satanism.

This neoclassical Luciferianism tends to be a philosophy that is non-denominational, interreligious, or non-religious. Traditional Freemasonry is a school of thought and a social organization rather than a religion. For example, the Founding Fathers were both Christians and Freemasons. They believed in the benevolence of the Creator, or Great Architect, of our world. Enlightenment from the Great Architect of traditional Freemasonry was achieved through study, ritual, and meditation.

The secret society of the Illuminati also believes in a Luciferian philosophy. The word "Illuminati" means the enlightened ones. However, Illuminati enlightenment is achieved through esoteric practices and beliefs that differ greatly from Christian-Judaic spirituality. Occultism is a philosophy of hidden knowledge. Illuminati occultism is knowledge that must be kept hidden because it is intended only for an elite few. These elite devotees conceal their contempt for Christian-Judaic beliefs.

In Christian-Judaic theology it is believed that God is the Creator of the material world and humanity. The Book of Genesis reveals that "God looked upon all that He created and saw that it was good." Therefore, from the Christian viewpoint the Creator, humanity and nature are all good. But the occultism of the Illuminati refutes this self-evident truth.

The Illuminati are dualists. They believe in Two Realms; there is a realm of pure thought and the realm of material forms. They have reverence for an imaginary realm of light; this would be a mental universe of ideal forms, perfect logic, and order. In their Luciferian philosophy, this perfect realm of order is in eternal conflict with the chaotic material universe. To the Illuminati, common humanity and the natural world are both sources of chaos. Furthermore, to the Illuminati, the Christian-Judaic God, who created the material universe, is evil. They believe that because the material world is evil then it must be its maker. Therefore, they place their faith in their god Lucifer, the Light Bearer, who brings illumination from the realm of light. This illumination is meant only for an elite few so that they can establish order into the chaos of the evil material world. This belief justifies the Illuminati’s contempt for ordinary human beings and the natural world.

The Freemasonry of our Founding Fathers was not Illuminati occultism, but the Illuminati did take ideas and rituals from the Freemasons and twist them in malevolent ways. The Illuminati’s phony enlightenment is a form of brainwashing based on occult practices. The Illuminati is a complex organization. Different branches of the Illuminati have somewhat different practices and beliefs. But all the elite leaders of the Illuminati do believe in this dualistic occult philosophy. In their philosophy Lucifer is good and the Christian-Judaic God of Creation is evil. The Illuminati are both feminine and Satanic.

The actual Illuminati are above the moral codes of general society. On May 1st, 1776, Adam Weishaupt founded the Bavarian Illuminati. His original group was eventually exposed and banned by the Bavarian government, but its Illuminati doctrine lived on. The ideas of Weishaupt inspired others to create an Illuminati-type secret society that is now tremendously powerful. Weishaupt stated “It is necessary to establish a universal regime over the whole world.” Weishaupt may have had a personal failure but his plan for world conquest was taken over by others. The Rothschild family and other wealthy clans improved Weishaupt's organizational structure. In a shroud of unbreakable secrecy they created their own Illuminati-type group. There were other Illuminati groups before Weishaupt, but his ideas became powerful because they resulted in the marriage of Illuminati philosophy with great wealth.

The basic goal of the Illuminati is to promote a small group of “Illuminated” individuals in charge of all society. Weishaupt presented himself as a king of philosophy. He described a utopian world government that would bring equality, peace, and order. But it is a mistake to judge Weishaupt by his publicly known declarations. It is true that in any secret society there are various levels of teachings, and the hidden advanced teachings may refute the publicly known introductory teachings.

Although Weishaupt's philosophy sounds idealistic, his methods for achieving these idealistic goals allow for every criminal activity imaginable. The Luciferianism of the Illuminati is merely a form of mind control. This mind control supports the organizational structure of a criminal secret society. After the fall of Weishaupt, wealthy financiers in Europe took his Illuminati system and used it to covertly promote their own plutocratic interests. Their ultimate goal was to create a global republic ruled by wealth.

Today this Illuminati financial cartel is a parasitic secret society. They use various techniques to take over other organizations and governments. They really create nothing themselves but feed off the honest labor of others. Weishaupt's original plan was to first infiltrate the Freemason lodges in Bavaria and use that as a basis for the eventual overthrow of the government. This initial effort failed. But by understanding this failed attempt you can see how the present day Illuminati crime syndicate works. The Illuminati use bribery, blackmail, and seduction to recruit or control the leadership of other organizations.

Furthermore, the actual insiders of this secret criminal-government don't always refer to themselves as the Illuminati, even in private. Weishaupt referred to his followers as perfectabilists, meaning perfected ones. Like every cult, the Society of Lucifer have their own secret language and ways of talking about themselves that is unknown to outsiders. I am using the word “Illuminati” in this essay because it is the most commonly known term used by outsiders.

Disinformation of every type imaginable has been put out to conceal the authentic nature of this group. Some disinformation takes the concepts of the Illuminati that misrepresent their true nature. It's important for you to understand that the Illuminati leaders are ordinary human beings that can be understood with psychology, but some anti-Illuminati researchers deny that the Illuminati are even human. For example, some Christian researchers are obsessed with explaining the Illuminati in terms of demonology. Some researchers believe that the leaders of the Illuminati are reptilian extraterrestrials. Such unlikely claims make all serious research into the Illuminati seem silly.

However, the real life Illuminati are quite serious. The Illuminati now control the U.S. government on the highest levels. Presently, nobody reaches a position of exceptional power in America unless that person is under the control of the Illuminati secret government. In theory the U.S. is a democracy, but in practice the U.S. federal government is a functioning plutocracy that only allows for the illusion of democracy. This is why no matter what politicians we elect to office they always only serve the interests of Wall Street and no longer serve the welfare of the people.

Actual capitalism isn't being practiced anymore. The corruption of Wall Street is being propped up on the backs of the American people with unending national debt. Debt has become a way of enslaving both individuals and nations. In the end, the super wealthy Illuminati plan to impose their own version of collectivism on the public so that the common individual will own nothing. Our citizenship is being invalidated and we are being turned into mere chattel. They have taken over our economy, our country, and our symbols.

The plutocratic Illuminati have reinterpreted the Great Seal and have redefined its symbolism according to their Satanic beliefs. The number 13 is a symbol of the Illuminati that misrepresents their true nature. It is significant to the practice of witchcraft and occultism. A five-pointed star can represent the pentagram. Until the Inquisition there were no Satanic associations with this symbol, but over time it became a symbol in the occult for magical power. Such power is imagined to arise from the five mystical elements of earth, air, water, fire, and ether. The six-pointed star (sexagram), consists of two intertwined triangles. This becomes the symbol for the magical union of masculine and feminine energies. Sex magic is a ritual technique used by some Satanists to evoke the mystical life-force. The Latin phrase for “One Out of Many” now refers to a Luciferian One World Government that is to destroy the sovereignty of the many nation states of the world.

The floating eye above the unfinished pyramid becomes the evil eye of Lucifer in the style of the old Egyptian eye of Horus. In Illuminati thinking, the date 1776 on the base of the pyramid refers to May 1st, 1776 when Adam Weishaupt first founded the Illuminati doctrine. H. G. Wells wrote a non-fiction book New World Order that promoted the idea of a single world government. Through their secret societies the Illuminati have redefined the phrase New World Order to refer to the takeover of the world by a One World Government.

Just as the federal government of our nation has been covertly taken over, the meaning of the Great Seal of the United States has also been usurped. No longer is it a symbol of Christian-Judaic Democracy, now it is a symbol of Occult Luciferian Plutocracy. Whenever you hear contemporary politicians use the phrase, "New World Order," you must realize that they are covertly referring to the movement that is destroying the sovereignty of the United States in an attempt to create a single world government.

The Illuminati's New World Order is not a democracy of any kind. It is a plutocratic secret republic that operates internationally. It does not presently control all nations, but its influence is widespread. At this time the Illuminati has victimized most of the world to varying degrees. This New World Order is run by a collection of generational billionaire families, such as the Rothschild, Warburg, Bin Laden, Bush, Li Ka-Shing, and Rockefeller clans. There are others as well. On a worldwide basis, the aristocrat class of the Illuminati number in the thousands, and they control many others.

Most of the present day problems of our world are symptoms of a disease, and the disease itself is the Illuminati. They operate without any recognizable moral code. Their members obey three rules: never publicly reveal the existence of the Illuminati, never publicly admit to being an Illuminati member, and always obey orders from the Illuminati hierarchy.

The seed that was planted by Adam Weishaupt more than two hundred years ago has grown to become a covert government with branches throughout the world. Their success is dependent upon deception. They view the natural environment and the human race as resources to be used in whatever way they choose to increase their own profits and power. They justify their criminal actions with the pretense that they are creating a utopian world government. They gladly create wars and pollute the Earth in order to serve their plans. And although the average American doesn't even know that they exist, the Illuminati is now the most powerful organization on our planet.

Welcome to the real world.

9/11 TRUTH AND CHEMICAL SPRAYING. Our present day society is filled with slaves. These slaves don't wear physical chains, instead they are controlled with brainwashing and propaganda. The way you can identify mind-slaves is that whenever they hear a disturbing truth they accuse the truth teller of being a "conspiracy theorist." Pavlov's dog was conditioned to automatically drool whenever it heard a bell ring. The conditioning of these mind-slaves is such that they automatically speak out the words "conspiracy theory" whenever they hear a controversial truism. It may feel embarrassing to be labeled as a conspiracy theorist, but knowing the truth and speaking it is essential to being a free person.

There are two ways in which anyone can visibly see the power of the New World Order in America today; these are the suppression of 9/11 truth and the continual spraying of our country with megatons of aluminum-based toxins coming from overflying aircraft.

9/11/2001 marks the day when the New World Order officially took complete control of the hierarchy of the United States. Engineers, architects, and airline pilots have analyzed the events of that day. The facts show that the twin towers and building seven of the World Trade Center were brought down with controlled demolition. As well as this, the Pentagon was hit with a cruise type missile and not a airliner. Traitors within the U.S. government attacked our country under the false flag of foreign terrorism. The fact that these truths aren't being discussed on mainstream media is proof that the corporate-controlled mass media is now controlled by the New World Order.

The murder nearly three thousand Americans on 9/11 is proof of the New World Order's contempt for us. Further proof of their hostile intentions is the fact that we are being systematically poisoned through the spraying of chemicals from overflying aircraft. Your tax dollars are being used to pay for the spraying of yourself, your friends, and your family. These chem trails (chemical trails) from the aircraft are not contrails. Contrails quickly dissipate in the sky. Chem trails can be seen extending from horizon to horizon. They slowly spread out as their poisonous vapor falls to the ground. Disinformation has been put out that this spraying is necessary to combat global warming, but that's just another big lie. These chem trails are decreasing the fertility rate of Americans and slowly killing us. They also weaken our immune systems and make us more vulnerable to biological weapons. Anyone can see these chem trails in the sky. All free thinking citizens must realize that the American people are under attack from the New World Order.

NOBLE LIES. When I was young I was told that if you want to understand the Society of Lucifer you must first understand Plato's Republic. Plato was an ancient Greek philosopher whose Republic democratic in Athens. Plato dismissed democracy as mob rule and wrote his anti-democracy, The Republic, in response. Plato's imaginary utopian republic is ruled by an upper class of philosopher aristocrats. These aristocrats control the people with Noble Lies, which are mythological stories that motivate the common citizens. The laws of these aristocrats are enforced by a class of warriors, who like the aristocrats are schooled from childhood for their roles in the Republic. The lowest class of this Republic are simple commoners who do all the work, have no rights, and have no say in the government.

If the New World Order is ever fully realized according to Illuminati design it will look like Plato's Republic in this way. The world will be ruled by the all powerful descendants of criminal billionaires. They will be occult philosopher aristocrats who will control the public with propaganda and brainwashing. Below them will be the Satanic warrior class of the police state who will enforce the laws of this totalitarian republic with violence, imprisonment, and brutality. The lowest class will be mind-controlled slaves who do all the work, have no rights, and have no say in the government.

The Noble Lies of Plato's Republic were really an ancient version of propaganda. The mythological stories of ancient Egypt, Greece, and Rome were colorful stories that captured the imaginations of ordinary people and inspired them to cooperate with their rulers. An example of a Noble Lie can be found in the history of ancient Egypt. This culture lasted for more than eight hundred years. Every year, on the same date, the ruling Pharaoh would go down to the river Nile and rituallyistically throw in a scroll commanding the Nile to rise. Shortly after this, the Nile would rise, flooding the fields of farmers so they could grow their crops. Thus the farmers would owe loyalty and taxes to the god Pharaoh for this service. Of course the rising of the Nile had nothing to do with the ritual; the Nile has risen on schedule since before Egyptian civilization. The only thing Noble about such a Lie is that it makes the liar a member of the so called nobility.

Ancient myths are amusing; however, propaganda and brainwashing have become exact sciences that are used with brutal effectiveness by contemporary leaders. Plato's dream of an utopian Republic is now evolving into a living hell. 9/11 is a modern example of a so-called Noble Lie. In this mythological story an small group of fanatical Islamic terrorists attack America leaving behind smoke and ruin. The warrior president, George W. Bush, rises from the ashes and leads the people to attack the homeland of the terrorists. But the war on Terror is never-ending, and so this holy crusade must continue on and on.
The myth of 9/11 has bankrupted our nation, empowered the wealthy Illuminati, destroyed the Bill of Rights, and demoralized the average American citizen. This event, which was engineered by the New World Order secret government, is a flimsy excuse to invade those countries that possess oil fields. Notice how the news reporters have downplayed the long time relationship between the Bush family and the Bin Laden clan through the Carlyle group and other business dealings. When every mass-media outlet in the country sells the public on the big lie of 9/11 it's difficult for ordinary people to know the truth.

The question is, what makes it possible for the New World Order to deceive the whole world?

THE STRUCTURE OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER. Founding Father George Washington once wrote a letter to a friend in which he spoke of his fear that the Illuminati doctrine might spread to the fledgling United States. By then, the Rothschild family had taken the Illuminati doctrine and used it to increase their wealth and power. The highjacking of the French Revolution was the first big successful action of this group. Through the movement of Jacobinism, the original democratic intentions of the French revolution were undermined and the Reign of Terror killed thousands of innocent people. The post-revolutionary French peasants turned to the dictator Napoleon in desperation. But this would-be savior was merely a Rothschild puppet and brought France into a era of continual warfare. The Rothschild family then profited by lending money to all sides of the Napoleonic Wars. This combination of high finance and covert social manipulation caused the expansion of Illuminati power. And thus this secret society grew.

Today the Illuminati is a complex, international organization privately lead by many families of generational wealth. Not every billionaire is in the Illuminati, and not every aristocratic Illuminati member is a billionaire. But the ruling elite of the Illuminati are recruited from families who come from "old money." These generational Illuminati family members begin their training as children, often separated from their families when they are sent off to exclusive boarding schools. They grow up to attend prestigious universities and join groups that educate them in some version of neoclassical Luciferianism. Eventually, if they demonstrate the correct elitist attitude, they are recruited into the Illuminati.

These Illuminati elites all have social images that differ from their private lives. They pretend to be Jewish, Catholic, Protestant, Muslim, or even communist atheists. What they really believe in is an occultic form of Luciferianism. They see themselves as superior because of their breeding and training. They are born into wealth and social connections so that their power is inherited rather than earned. They use techniques developed by their successful ancestors. They follow plans developed in the 1700s and those carried on in an ivory tower created by their wealth, power, and social status. They lack true innovation or even the insight that would come from recent scientific revelations concerning the human condition. They are slaves to peculiar traditions, but they are also the unchallenged leaders of the New World Order.

The Illuminati organization does have its own class structure. The aristocrats appoint a committee of a few hundred people that set the policies and approve the plans. This aristocratic committee has generational criminal enforcers to act as its warrior class. The reason that the Illuminati has been able to maintain its secret status for more than two hundred years is because of these criminal enforcers. These enforcers make sure that knowledge of the Illuminati is kept below the radar of the general public.

My older relative was a member of this criminal class of Illuminati. There were those in the Society of Lucifer who wished to accept initiation into this role of criminal enforcer, but I managed to avoid that. The Satanic mind control for Illuminati enforcers begins as early as age eight and it is systematic and brutal. By the time I was a teenager I managed to break free from the cult, but with great difficulty.

One of the rituals I remember observing as a child was a peculiar form of chanting. Generational Satanists will sometimes take verses from the Holy Bible and read them backwards. For example, "God is love." becomes "evol si do." The first time I heard them chanting this I thought they were saying, "evil sea-dog." A small group of devotees would come together, dress up in black robes, burn incense and black candles, then repeatedly chant "evol si do." This could go on for hours. Eventually the group would have a reaction. Some of them would break down in tears, while others would laugh hysterically and grin as if with revelation. And as bizarre as this was, it was one of their less disturbing rituals.

In programming their mind control victims, the Illuminati use forms of torture that don't leave scars. Satanic mind control is similar to MK Ultra mind control developed by the CIA. Psychiatric techniques have made the technology of mind control even more effective. Some persons programmed by the Illuminati don't even consciously realize that they've been brainwashed.

Periods of intense pain or emotional trauma can cause an individual to break off from his or her normal ego state and develop a secondary cult personality. Many generational Satanists have two personalities. They have their public personality and their initiated Satanic personality. The wealthy Illuminati aristocrats aren't subject to this type of brutal brainwashing, instead they are conditioned with a slow process of systematic socialization. The different classes of Illuminati have different systems of mind control, but in all cases the end result is a person without normal empathy. This is a type of structured sociopathy where they only feel empathy for other members of the Illuminati.

Understand that Illuminati criminal enforcers are not simple thugs. These are intelligent, well educated individuals who have respectable careers and social status. However, what you should realize is that the reason the Illuminati have been able to accomplish their goals is because they have obedient criminal enforcers capable of violence, torture, brainwashing, bribery, blackmail, and any other means necessary.

The Illuminati do control or regulate hundreds of thousands of criminals around the world. Most organized crime is subject to Illuminati control. In order to launder their illegal money organized crime must use Illuminati-controlled bankers. Most of these criminals don't realize that they are ultimately controlled by the Illuminati. Most of them are merely loyal to their immediate crime lords. Only a small number of criminal kingpins have a direct relationship with the Illuminati elite. The Illuminati aristocrats have long term relationships with the generational Satanists who make up their criminal enforcers. These criminal enforcers rule over the common class of organized crime. The average criminal may not worship Satan, but ultimately he does answer to generational Satanists.

The subject of Satanism can be confusing. Not all Satanists are in the Illuminati and not all Illuminati members define themselves as Satanists. The philosophy of public knowledge is different than the hidden Satanic philosophy of the Illuminati. Furthermore, the occult Luciferianism of the aristocrats isn't exactly the same as the generational Satanism practiced by the criminal enforcers. Generational Satanism tends to be less intellectual and more brutal than the academic philosophy of the aristocrats. The aristocrat Illuminati are Satanists, but they prefer to define themselves as illuminated ones rather than as Satan worshipers.

What makes the elite dangerous isn’t that they worship Satan but that they believe in a dualistic philosophy. Their aristocratic lifestyles are very orderly. They conceive of a mental realm of light made up of ideal geometric forms, mathematical logic, and perfectly controlled order. In their philosophy, this mental universe of order is in constant conflict with the forces of chaos in the material universe. They see the natural world and human freedom as sources of chaos; thus they seek to bring chaos into order by destroying the natural world and by turning human society into a vast prison.
By comparison, the philosophy of their criminal class is similar to that of Friedrich Nietzsche--loyal to aristocracy, anti-Christian, cruel, instinctive, and aggressive. The upper class of aristocrat Illuminati are machiavellian. They make calculated long-term plans with intellectual detachment. The followers of these aristocrats are a class of criminals who are egotistical, materialistic, self-indulgent, greedy, and vengeful.

But whether they are refined aristocrats or brutal criminals, all classes of the Illuminati reject Christian-Judaic morality--which is the whole point. The Illuminati don't play by the same rules that most people in society do, which is why they have an advantage. These people aren't geniuses, they're just unscrupulous.

I'm pointing out the subtlety of differences in belief among various branches of the Illuminati to make it clear that this is a sophisticated and complex system. These self-deluded aristocratic leaders don't think of themselves as being evil. They all suffer from grandiosity. In their belief system, it is moral for them to use any means necessary to achieve their objective of a single world government. They may sound idealistic when they speak of the global New World Order that they hope to create. Their paradise, however, would be everyone else's hell.

Imagine a world of human slaves electronically implanted with microchips in their brains so that they behave like androids; and they are all controlled by a colossal supercomputer that is itself programmed by a republic of inbred generational aristocrats. This is the ultimate New World Order of which they secretly dream. Occult Luciferianism is a science and Satanism is a technology.

The Illuminati planners have access to scientific knowledge and technology that is withheld from the general public. The Illuminati have secret libraries in which they keep books with information that they wish to keep from uninformed outsiders. They manipulate the public with lies, but their own members must have accurate information. They possess technology and medical cures that they withhold from society in general. They have books that contain a secret history of the world which they conceal. They jealously protect their hidden knowledge so they can maintain the grand illusion that they have created for the naive public. In my youth I was allowed to visit a couple of their smaller libraries, but the larger libraries are guarded like banks. Even the locations of these libraries are kept secret. They guard all their secrets with fanatical dedication.

Although the Illuminati is resolute in its secrecy, it has also developed a public persona through its concept of the New World Order. These days many Illuminati operatives act very openly. In this post 9/11 world, most of the real work performed for the New World Order is done by non-criminals who act through publicly known institutions. These are very well educated people who obey the Illuminati hierarchy with skill and dedication. These Illuminati servants are manipulated through various methods of enticement or brainwashing. These servants don't always know exactly who they are working for, but they do know that they work for the "global elite." These Illuminati servants occupy key positions in government, banking, corporations, and influential non-profit corporations.

Some of the puppet branches of the New World Order are the United Nations, the Bilderberg Group, the Bank of England, the Trilateral Commission, the International Monetary Fund, the Council on Foreign Relations, Bohemian Grove, Skull and Bones of Yale, and the Federal Reserve.

Of course the Federal Reserve is not actually a part of our federal government, but it uses our government's credit to print money that requires American taxpayers to pay billions of dollars in interest to them. In theory the our federal government has oversight powers, but in reality the Fed is a privately owned corporation. It's significant that the Great Seal of the United States is printed on the one dollar bill because the Federal Reserve which prints this currency is itself actually owned by Illuminati members. This is the biggest fraud in the world, but the American people are kept in the dark by the media.

The New World Order controls propaganda in America through corporations such as News Corp., Disney, Time Warner, Viacom, and CBS. Having control of the mass media outlets means that the Illuminati can control both the public's perception of the majority opinion and the public's perception of authority. Psychologists like Solomon Asch have shown that the average person feels an unconscious impulse to conform to the social pressure of the majority. Asch has shown that the average person feels an unconscious impulse to conform to the social pressure of the majority. All human beings are descended from tribal ancestors. In tribal society a conformity to majority opinion is essential to survival. Tribal society also demands respect for the authority of the tribal elders and the shaman. Our brains are hardwired to instinctively obey authority figures and majority opinion. Mass media, particularly television, creates the illusion of both authoritative reporters and majority opinion. America has the traditions of a free press and free speech. And the present day mass media is designed to sound like a free press with conflicting opinions and criticism of leaders. But all of the large corporate-controlled outlets are a calculated mixture of authentic news and falsehood.

The internet is still a new tool to be used to discover otherwise censored facts. But the Illuminati have muddied the waters of the internet with clever disinformation. Anyone who disobeys the truth is quickly labeled as a conspiratorial theorist. Another trick is to accuse virtually everyone of being Illuminati, so that the real Illuminati remain hidden in a sea of false accusations.

Some researchers have accused the Freemasons who designed the Great Seal of being Satanists, but the Masons are not Illuminati. However, the Illuminati have infiltrated most prominent American institutions including the Masons. After the Civil War, a former Confederate general, Albert Pike, became prominent in the Masons. As well as being an influential Mason, Albert Pike was a secret Illuminati operative. Because the Masons keep many of their teachings secret, it's difficult to say exactly how far they have strayed from the Freemasonry of our American Founding Fathers. However, it's certain that Albert Pike introduced some elements of Illuminati philosophy into some Masonic teachings.

I once read a book from one of the secret Illuminati libraries which said that Albert Pike was involved in the assassination of President Lincoln, but that is something I can't prove. What is provable is that Albert Pike was the architect of a long term plan by the Illuminati for the systematic takeover of the world. Albert Pike actually was an impressive intellectual, his knowledge of world cultures was extensive. Although contemporary Masonic spin masters deny that he ever made such a plan, in this particular case the cat is out of the bag. After he developed this plan for the Illuminati, Albert Pike bragged about it to outsiders. Knowledge of this plan was first revealed publicly in 1894 by Gabriel Jagod-Pager ten years before World War One. Over time, through other sources, an awareness of this plan reached public attention. This is Albert Pike's so-called prediction of three world wars.

Albert Pike promoted the idea that this "prophecy" was mystically revealed to him by his god Lucifer. But it is still called the Great Plan by the Illuminati. The Great Plan calls for three world wars. Albert Pike must have observed how demoralized Americans were at the end of the Civil War. He realized how such demoralization could be used to compel people to submit to a militarized governmental authority. His plan calls for the systematic use of such demoralization. At the end of World War Three, the survivors are to be so desperate that they will gladly accept the rule of a One World Government.

World War One and World War Two have already unfolded as planned. At the end of World War One the League of Nations was formed, but its power was weak. At the end of World War Two the more powerful United Nations was formed. We are now at the beginnings of World War Three. Of course, most Jewish people and most Muslims prefer peace, but a fanatical minority in both cultures has been covertly engineered. Both the Zionist extremists and the Islamic terrorists are creations of the Illuminati. The massive military buildup of totalitarian China has also been engineered by the Illuminati. Military build-up has taken place in nations across the world. Everything is in place for the endgame of the Great Plan. According to the Great Plan, at the end of World War Three, the New World Order is to be publicly established as the world’s only government.

The Illuminati intends to massively depopulate the human race with various methods. Obama adviser Zbigniew Brezinski has publicly bragged that it’s easier to kill a million people than to control a million people. The modern world has many depopulation technologies such as toxic vaccines, biological weapons, nuclear weapons, weather manipulation, pollution of water supply, mass poisoning of food, etc. etc. etc. They plan to kill more than six billion humans. If all goes according to the Great Plan, by the time they publicly announce their New World Order government, there will only be five hundred million humans left alive. If the Great Plan were to become fully enacted, then these unfortunate survivors would live in a prison world designed by occultic Luciferians and run by generational Satanists.

RESISTANCE. There has always been a resistance movement both within the Illuminati and outside of it as well. I could not have rejected full initiation into the Society of Lucifer if that were not the case. Although the Illuminati resistance members that I knew of when I was young have long since died, I believe that there are still those within the Illuminati who desire to stop the Great Plan. There is also an increasing resistance outside the Illuminati. In recent years more people have publicly spoken out against the New World Order. Some of these advocates for truth are Alex Jones, Webster Tarpley, Jason Bemas, and Jesse Ventura.

However, if this secret government is as powerful as I say it is, you may wonder whether or not resistance is futile. I say that resistance is not futile for this reason. For all its power, the Illuminati’s New World Order has a great big flaw. Its Achilles’ heel is its dependence on secrecy.

Presently, the Illuminati do control key people in the various organizations which actualize their Great Plan. The Illuminati control many people through their deceptiveness, but some of these Illuminati puppets feel no real loyalty to the Illuminati leadership. Many of these puppets don’t really know for whom they work. Some puppets knowledgeably serve the Illuminati and others are unwittingly manipulated. But in either case, they don’t all necessarily love their masters.

The Illuminati endgame, if realized, would kill or degrade everyone except for a few of the aristocrat families. These generational Illuminati aristocrats are willing to betray anyone, even their own fellow Illuminati. The Illuminati’s inner circle consists of leaders who suffer from feelings of godhood. In other words, they have clinical megalomaniacs, and many Illuminati insiders know this. The Illuminati leaders hide behind masks. When their true faces are revealed, they will lose their power to control their puppets.

For example, most Freemasons are decent people who love their country. Furthermore, most people in the federal government are patriots who respect democracy and the Constitution. Most people who work for corporations respect democracy and authentic capitalism. The Illuminati inner circle only has direct control over some of the people who are at the top of the American hierarchy. From what I can tell, these Illuminati puppets are still few in number but are effective because they are strategically placed. The Illuminati have built a house of cards that for all its power can still be brought down.

If an increasing number of Americans wake up to the truth, it could nullify the power of the Illuminati. Even if you don’t believe in all I am saying here, you must have noticed that our country has gone terribly wrong. It is naive to believe that there isn’t massive corruption among our nation’s leaders. A growing awareness of this corruption could transform society.

The greatest thing you can do to oppose this threat is to study up on the New World Order and share with others what you have learned. There needs to be a grassroots information network that is separate from the Illuminati-controlled mass media. Truth and public awareness are what is most feared by the secret Illuminati. This is urgent. The Great Plan is reaching the point where international genocide is becoming unavoidable.

Part of the long term plan of the Illuminati has been to dummy-down the public. One of Weishaupt’s goals was to destroy the institution of the family so that people would become completely dependent upon the state. For many decades the Illuminati have covertly manipulated many large institutions to quietly degrade humanity. Unnecessary obstetrical trauma, circumcision, drug addiction, psychiatric drugs, flouride in water, mass media deception, and other techniques have been used to create a culture of sheep-like people. But sheep can become people again.

Realize these things. People who have been brainwashed can be deprogrammed. People who have been intimidated into servitude can regain their courage. People who have been tricked through deception can learn the truth.

I am a Christian. Whether or not I am a good Christian is for God to say. The reason I am doing what I can to resist is not because I am suffering for my faith, but because the Illuminati can be thwarted. If victory against the Illuminati comes, it will not be by sheer strength but by God’s hand. There is a better world than this one. If I expect to enter that world, I must do what I can to help keep the Illuminati’s New World Order from destroying this one. For me, resisting the Illuminati is a spiritual duty.

I believe that Christianity can only be understood within its historical context. Christianity was a reaction to the materialism of the Roman Empire. After Christianity became the favored state religion of the Roman Empire it resulted in a balanced culture in which Christian spirituality complimented the worldly success of the Byzantine Empire. This was a golden age. But when Constantinople fell to Muslim expansion, Christianity became separated from this cosmopolitan mediterranean culture. Isolated in Northern Europe, the Dark Ages of Christianity created an unbalanced society. Witch hunts and Inquisitions imposed a culture of terror and narrow-mindedness onto medieval Christendom. The absolute power of the Church created absolute corruption. This created an environment in Europe in which secret societies thrived. These secret societies were a reaction to the oppressive nature of medieval Christianity. Reform movements and the Renaissance eventually transformed Christianity and restored its balance. But the environment of anti-Christian secret societies continued on.

The Bavarian Illuminati was born from this environment of anti-Christian secret societies.

Medieval Christianity was guilty of dualistic philosophy and all dualistic philosophy is both insane and harmful. The medieval idea that Heaven was perfect and orderly but that the material world was evil and chaotic encouraged a contempt for everything worldly. Love of the soul encouraged a hatred for the body. This dualistic thinking justified the insanity and cruelty of the Inquisition.

I believe that Christian I believe that both Heaven and Earth are the domain of God’s grace. The soul and the body are integrated aspects of the same human being. Heaven and the material universe are not two separate realms in opposition with one another. They are two harmonious aspects of God’s interconnected Kingdom.

Medieval Christianity itself created the environment into which the various forms of Luciferianism were born. The neoclassical Luciferianism of Freemasonry, when taught openly, is not necessarily evil. Remember that the Founding Fathers of America all studied the traditional Masonic teachings. I am an open-minded Christian. I believe that most non-Christian philosophies are either benevolent or at least harmless. But this secret, anti-Christian Illuminati is a real threat to Christian-Judaic society.

The Illuminati operates as a secret international corporation. Instead of shareholders there are a secret thousand aristocrats. They elect a committee of a few hundred aristocrats. This committee appoints a board of directors to manage the business. of world conquest. This inner circle’s board of directors consists of a dozen or so powerful leaders. At any point in time this board of directors appoint a chairman who runs certain meetings.

This chairman is the Illuminati leader actually think of Adam Weishaupt as their true, "Blessed Anti-Christ." Eventually the Illuminati may publicly promote one of its members as the future head of their One World Government. But any contemporary New World Order spokesperson would merely be walking on a path that was trailblazed by Adam Weishaupt. If you’re a Christian who’s waiting for the prophecy of the Anti-Christ to come true, you’re more than two hundred years too late.

The Illuminati is a reaction to Christianity, but I’m not sure that it will be Christians who will defeat it. Just as they have compromised other institutions through covert methods, the Illuminati have subtly influenced modern Christian thinking. Many contemporary Christians seem to feel that the only political issues they should care about are gay marriage and abortion. Some Christians are passively waiting for the Anti-Christ to appear so they can be taken up to Heaven in the Rapture. Some Christians are paranoid and see Satanism in everyone and everything, except for their own particular Church. Actual Satanists are a small percent of the population, but some of them hold positions of great power. Yet the average modern Christian only thinks of Satan as an abstract symbol for the personal temptation to commit sin. I’m afraid that most of my fellow Christians will have to be standing in line to receive a tattooed barcode I.D. on their foreheads and wrists before they realize that the Illuminati isn’t merely a conspiracy theory.

You don’t have to be a Christian to oppose the Illuminati. You merely have to be someone who believes in democracy, capitalism, and human rights. The Bill of Rights and the economy are being disassembled before our eyes. The natural environment is being openly destroyed by monstrous corporations. The depopulation agenda is moving forward. Aluminum based toxins float down from the sky everyday. You can believe in the matrix of lies that are being sold by the Illuminati-controlled mass media, or you can hear the truth and see what’s really going on.

The ultimate resistance to the Illuminati is found through the attainment of mental health. The basis of mental health is the ability to accept reality. I have experiences with this secret society so I know that it is real. But I can understand why someone without such experiences might doubt its verity. However, anyone who does basic research can realize the factuality of 9/11 Truth and the Chem Trail phenomena. Once you realize these truths they must lead you to the realization that the mass media outlets are lying to us and that we are being misled by an insane and corrupted society.

In their insanity the Illuminati commit acts of evil, but their essential nature as spiritual beings is good. As infants in their mothers arms, they were not yet monsters. The Illuminati have been socialized and brainwashed into accepting their insanity. But there is a point where an individual chooses to identify himself with his insanity, and at that point he becomes evil. If civilization is to survive, these evil leaders must somehow be removed from power.

But the Illuminati aren’t the only ones to blame. The denial of reality is also a form of mental illness. Many people sit in front of their television sets watching the news in an unconscious way. Television creates a false model of reality in which factual events are mixed together with lies such as 9/11. This is how so many Americans have become brainwashed.

When you watch television or read the news from any mass media outlet you have to think of it as a game. In this game, you know that you are being lied to much of the time. You have to search for alternative news outlets so you can discover hidden information. And you need to share with others what you learn. An revolutionary truth-movement needs to be built.

I believe that the original meaning of the Great Seal of the United States can be reclaimed. I’m not a Freemason, but the Freemasons are right in believing that there is power in symbolism. A vital step in taking back the symbol of the Great Seal would be for America to take back its right to print its own currency. The Illuminati stole the Great Seal of the United States when we allowed the Fed to take over our currency. Now it is the Illuminati’s Great Seal that they print on their one dollar bills. Nationalizing our currency and eliminating the Fed would be an essential victory in a second American revolution where we take back our country from the Illuminati. Then the Great Seal on every one dollar bill would cease to be an Illuminati symbol. Once more the Great Seal would become a symbol for a democracy based on moral values. The New Order of the Ages can be a world run by a multitude of sovereign democratic nations. America can be reborn as a country ruled by a free people who find purpose in their relationship with Providence. This would be the Divine actualization of the Great Seal.
