

The Deus Plan by KERTH RIXFORD BARKER June 21st, 2012

The Deus Plan was revealed to me recently by anonymous persons. I was contacted in person by a small group of people who told me a story. It could be a tall tale or a psy-op for all I know, but I have reason to believe there might be something to it. What I was told was that a few years ago members of the Global Elite put together a think tank that used a supercomputer to come up with a realistic plan for creating a stable and openly accepted world government. Advanced systems of analysis such as games theory, chaos theory and complexity theory were utilized. This think tank had an unlimited budget and was given unlimited access to information from every source imaginable. The computer programmers jokingly referred to the project as Deus Ex Machina, which is Latin for "god from the machine." Eventually they begin to address their computer as Deus and even started calling themselves the Disciples of Deus.

And Deus did finally come up with a realistic 12 step plan to create a stable world government. The problem was that the Global elite didn't like this plan. What they wanted was a single all powerful government run by generational billionaires; in other words an aristocracy of "old money" families like the Rothschilds and the Rockefellers. What Deus had described in its plan was something unexpected and more sophisticated. The people funding this think tank didn't like the results and so they decided to suppress the Deus Plan. However the computer programming Disciples of Deus wanted to reveal the plan to the world anyway, and so they went off the reservation.

I was contacted by them at a time when for three years I had been involved in co-producing and co-hosting a radio program called Thought Crime Radio. I've recently withdrawn from the show, which in my opinion has become frivolous, but at one time it was a cutting edge radio show that dealt with those controversial issues which main stream media avoids. The disciples of Deus knew of my involvement on the show and other articles that I've put out on the internet. They realized that I was one of a small group of journalists who could actually understand what they have to say. This was one reason why they wanted me to be the first one to publicly present the Deus Plan. I want to make it clear that the Deus Plan is not my plan, and that I have some doubts about whether it can be or should be actualized. I'm not in favor of the creation of a single world government and because this is advocated by the Deus Plan I'm skeptical of it. But what I do trust in is public discussion. Any idea that stimulates discussion and makes people think is an idea worth considering. Furthermore the Deus Plan is at least presenting an alternative to WWIII, which is where the human race is presently headed.

When I was a child the people I knew in the Society of Lucifer (what you call the Illuminati) all made reference to the "Great Plan." After the Civil War the famous Mason Albert Pike made a plan for three world wars. This plan was adopted as the long term plan for the New World Order/ Illuminati takeover of the world. Pike's Plan was first presented publicly in 1893 in a French book (which was later dismissed as a hoax). Yet that book, which was published in the late 1800s, accurately described WWI and WWII years before they took place. This is because those wars were engineered events and Pike's Plan is not a hoax.

I'm assuming that you already know that we have had a secret world government since 1776 when Adam Weishaupt presented the Illuminati doctrine to the world. And since the false flag of 9/11 there has been little resistance to this secret world government. Still guided by the dead hand of Albert Pike and lead by the false maitreya the Global Elite are working to destroy Christian civilization. This following quote indicates what the NWO/Illuminati have planned for WWIII.

"The Third World War must be fomented by taking advantage of the differences caused by the 'agentur' of the 'Illuminati' between the political Zionists and the leaders of the Islamic world. The war must be conducted in such a way that Islam (the Moslem Arabic world) and political Zionism (the State of Israel) mutually destroy each other. The other nations, once more divided on this issue will be constrained to fight to the point of complete physical, moral, spiritual and economical exhaustion." Albert Pike

The plan goes on to describe the systematic destruction of all civilization so that a new civilization based on Luciferian principles can be formed. Recent declarations from NWO/Illuminati leadership make it clear that the human race is to be depopulated to about two billion people or even much less. And those survivors of WWIII are to be completely enslaved. NWO/Illuminati leadership like to pretend that their goal is to create a high-tech version of Plato's Utopian Republic, but the reality would be more like Planet of the Apes or Mad Max, assuming that anyone survives at all.

Albert Pike developed his plan in the wake of the Civil War and he didn't factor in population growth, the internet or nuclear weapons. Although the NWO/Illuminati successfully engineered WWI & WWII, the third part of Pike's plan is presently infeasible. Atlas holding up the world is a symbol that many in the Global Elite like to use to depict themselves. This Global Elite, who run the world through financial manipulation and corporations, are all either members of the Illuminati or are closely connected to it. However, not all of these people are completely insane. So, some years ago, a faction in the Global Elite decided to create a think tank that would come up with a plan that could actually work to create a Global government without destroying the world in the process. Hence the Deus Plan was developed. Deus was to be like Prometheus bringing enlightenment to save the world.

Any alternative to Pike's Plan seems a good thing to me. I had an older relative who was a lesser member of the Illuminati. It is also true that some of my ancestors were members of an ancient secret society known as The Gentle Followers of Mary. In addition to those bloodlines I'm descended from a number of important Masons. Because of these bloodlines and for other reasons there were attempts to recruit me into the Illuminati, but I managed to avoid that, with difficulty. But I've always had some connection to certain people in the Illuminati. Their relationship with me is that I don't know how to contact them but they are aware of me and what I do and know how to contact me if they've a mind to. What I've known since childhood is that there is a division within the Illuminati. There are those who have absolute faith in Pike's Plan and want to go ahead with WWIII, and there are those who want some other plan to be developed, one that isn't so completely insane. However the one thing they all agree upon is the development of an openly accepted world government.

What we presently have is a hidden world government run by generational billionaires; and what the Deus Plan promotes is the idea that this hidden plutocracy would evolve into an open and democratic Technocracy. But the Deus Plan doesn't promote the idea of democracy as we now think of it. Not everyone would be allowed to vote. We would go from the elite rule of generational billionaires to the elite rule of those persons who most understand science and psychology. In other words we would go from Plutocracy to Technocracy. Some might question whether that would be an improvement.

Another feature of the Deus Plan is that its ultimate goal is for humanity to become a stable spacefaring civilization. The assumption of the plan is that survival of the human race depends upon our evolving a civilization that can live in space. I happen to believe that space exploration and colonization are vital to the future of humanity and that is one aspect of the Deus Plan with which I strongly agree.

One reason that the Global Elite might want an alternative to Pike's Plan is that WWIII would destroy the economy and the value of currency. Money is the basis of their power and a different plan that would stabilize the economy and retain the value of fiat currency would be to their advantage.

The Illuminati presently has a depopulation agenda. Chem Trails, fluoride in water, GMO foods, and other pollutants are decreasing fertility rates and shortening human life. This type of covert war against humanity by the Illuminati is something that the Deus Plan would put an end to by replacing that with a scientifically controlled society. But although science seems to be the religion of Deus, its plan allows for the diversity of religion, philosophy and culture. Unlike Pike's Plan, the Deus Plan doesn't call for the complete destruction of civilization as we know it.

The plan also mentions "Aquarian Fuel" which is water as fuel. This is something I've heard about for years but most people have no awareness of it. There is a technology that separates the hydrogen in water to be burnt as fuel and emits the oxygen from this water as a byproduct. The technology to use water as fuel has existed for a long time but has been suppressed by the Oil Companies. There are also political reasons for suppressing it. The excuse to invade Middle Eastern countries with oil fields wouldn't exit if people knew about the (A. F.) Aquarian-Fuel technology. The release of this technology is one of the more benevolent aspects of the Deus Plan, but not all of the plan is so benign.

Much of the plan seems controversial to me, particularly the idea that in the future a governmental agency will have the power to decide who can become a parent and who cannot. A supercomputer might find this idea logical, but it goes against human nature to limit people's ability to choose when they make babies.

The story of my conception illustrates this point. My parents for years had been very committed to birth control. My talkative father was known to embarrass my mother when he would brag about their discipline of using condoms and spermicide to prevent an unplanned birth. They felt that they had enough children and didn't want anymore. But in the early morning of Christmas Day they spontaneously had unprotected sex for once and I was conceived. Approximately nine months later I was born under the sign of Virgo. A governmental agency with the power to decide who can have children and when they can have them would put an end to this type of spontaneous conception that people now take for granted.

In spite of such reservations about the Deus Plan I've decided to put it out there anyway. I have these reasons. My contacts in the Illuminati have been telling me for some time that the year 2013 is intended to become a living hell for Americans. There will be the controlled demolition of the economy and other disasters. What recently happened to Greece is planned for in the U.S. in 2013. By the end of the year austerity will be imposed and even the illusion of freedom will be pretty much gone. For years I've tried to work with others to wake americans up about the Illuminati. But this effort seems to be in vain and we are running out of time. I've realized that some action must be taken by some members of the Global Elite if the Illuminati plan for WWIII is to be stopped. An awakening of the general public in America to stop Austerity in 2013 would be a good thing as I see it, but it will take more than that to stop the Illuminati's plan for WWIII. Therefore if it really comes down to a choice between WWIII or the Deus Plan, I would have to choose the Deus Plan. So I've agreed to publish this on the internet and see what comes of it.

I want to point out that each step below marks the beginning of a process. That process might be ongoing. That is, a step once started does not have to be completed for the next step to begin. This following plan represents the sequence in which these processes are evoked. The process described in each step begins with the establishment of some type of institution or institutions.

THE DEUS PLAN

Step One. The Disciples of Deus recruit powerful members of the Global Elite. Key persons in the Government, the Private Sector, and the Media are recruited to believe in the Deus Plan and its agenda. The media is used as a constant source of propaganda to shape public opinion to accept these ideas as the plan unfolds. Then the Aquarian-Fuel Triad is formed. The U.S.A., Russian Republic and Israel agree to share the patent on Aquarian-Fuel thus forming a Triad. Oil Companies within these countries are given near exclusive rights to the technology. This leads to economic and militaristic superiority of the Triad. The Arab League resists the Triad in a dramatic but one sided conflict that ultimately leads to Islamic submission to the Triad. A brief resistance from the Peoples Republic of China is also overcome. This resistance will lead to some saber rattling and fireworks but in the end the Triad will prevail.

Step Two. F. I. T., the Forum for International Treaties is established. F.I.T. is a weak central government. Its only real function is to facilitate treaties between nations. It has less real power than the U.N. and will eventually displace the U.N.. The Triad is to create F.I.T. and promote it. Every member nation is to retain its own sovereignty but must adhere to treaties once signed. Eventually F.I.T. will absorb every nation in the world, but this will be done over many decades. All F.I.T. member nations agree to recognize one another and be at peace with one another, but those considerations do not necessarily extend to non-F.I.T. nations. Steps Three through Twelve will be completed by whatever nations are in F.I.T. even before all the nations of the world become a part of F.I.T.. The Triad will become the driving force behind F.I.T. and for all practical purposes will appear to rule the world for nearly a century.

Step Three. The Federal Reserve and all debt-based currency is eliminated from all F.I.T. nations. The U.S. Treasury Dept. will issue currency without paying interest to any bank. All F.I.T. nations are to create their own debt-free currency or to use the currency of another F.I.T. nation. There will be many currencies. There will be no one universal currency used by all F.I.T. nations. There will never be a single world currency. Complexity is good.

Step Four. The Agency for Qualified Voters is established in all F.I.T. nations. Persons necessary to the running of government (such as members of the military, police and bureaucracy) are allowed to vote. Veterans are licensed to vote. Professional persons with college degrees are also licensed to vote. Other persons who can pass tests demonstrating self education in the sciences and humanities are allowed to vote. But voting is no longer a right but a privilege that must be earned. Persons known to oppose the F.I.T agenda might have their license to vote revoked. The votership will be more inclusive on the local level. For example, in the U.S. certain persons who have the right to vote in city or state elections might not have the right to vote in national elections. Over time as more people understand and believe in the Deus Plan, more people will be given the right to vote. Over time the right to vote will become less exclusive and more inclusive.

Step Five. The Panopticon for elected officials and important governmental workers is established in all F.I.T. nations. This means that every important person who works in government is continually watched. Government corruption is no longer tolerated. The control of governmental officials through bribery and blackmail comes to an end. This Panopticon starts out with the lesser officials and slowly expands to encompass the more powerful officials. Sometime after Step Twelve is completed, the Panopticon will encompass all of the vital government officials and workers. Then government will really become an expression of the will of the voters rather than the illusion of democracy that we have now.

Step Six. The Council for Gaian Economics is established within the F.I.T. organization. The word Gaian here refers to the theory of biology (Gaia) that the ecosystem is a self regulating system which actively creates the conditions that make life on Earth possible. All global economic systems will have to adjust themselves to environmental realities. This does not mean Cap and Trade which is just another Illuminati scam. Whatever you think of Global Warming, Cap and Trade is not an environmentalist solution but just a way to put more control into the hands of the superwealthy. Gaian Economics would be based on environmental realities and the need to create a sustainable world with a sustainable economy. It would mean the end to the planned obsolescent of products. It would mean that all manufactured goods must be recyclable and that the cost of recycling must be figured into the price. It would mean the development of non-polluting technologies. But Gaian Economics is not communism. Not all people are treated equally. Those who contribute more to society receive greater financial benefits.

Step Seven. The Institute for Gaian Agriculture is established within the F.I.T. organization. This would mean the end to industrialized farming and a return to the more labor intensive but sustainable practices of the past. What was described to me by the Disciples of Deus sounded as if most of the Earth would return to an agrarian society. In many cases mules would replace tractors. Computers and some other high tech machinery would be allowed, but farming in a way that preserves the environment would become a priority. The culture of consumerism would come to an end and most people would be living in a way that is similar to how people lived in the late 1800s.

Step Eight. The Committee for the creation of an International Standard Language is established within the F.I.T. organization. A completely new language is created that is not solely based on any existing language. A group of experts in linguistics, semiotics, psychology, sociology, neuroscience, and computer science are assembled. This new language will be designed to be easy to speak, write and learn. It will be designed to allow humans to communicate more effectively with computers. It will not displace other languages, they will continue to be taught and used. Humanity will always have many different languages. But it will provide a language in common for all humanity. Eventually all children in all countries will be taught to use this language as a second language. Everyone in the world will be multilingual.

Step Nine. The Council for the Enhancement of Education is established within the F.I.T. Organization. Most people don't realize that our present educational systems are designed more for social control and limiting intelligence than for true education. Psychology and Neurology will be used to make education faster and more effective. Education will not be about memorizing data to be repeated on tests. It will be about increasing intelligence, well being and abilities. All persons, no matter what their professions will be expected to become highly educated. As the general public becomes more educated more people will be allowed to become voters. When a majority of the population becomes highly educated then a majority of the population will become voters. The ultimate goal is to create a world where the governance is controlled by the collective consciousness of a highly educated population.

Step Ten. One thing that the Deus Plan indicates is that the greatest threat to Earth's ecosystem isn't overpopulation but rather our present economic system and agricultural practices. Gaian economics and Gaian Agriculture will change that. But Deus has indicated that even with humanity's greater harmony with the environment, seven billion people is still the limit that the Earth's ecosystem can sustain. The Committee to establish population limits for all regions and nations is established within the F.I.T. organization, and The Agency for Parental Licensing and Child Birth Approval is established in every F.I.T. nation. This agency is to establish what couples are qualified to become parents and how many children they can have and when they can have them. Any woman having a child without approval will have that child confiscated and put up for adoption. I asked if this was to be just more Eugenics and they said "no." Potential parents would be judged on things such as mental health, emotional stability, psychological characteristics of a good parent, the desire to be a parent, and financial ability to raise a child. Certain genetic defects might eliminate someone as a potential birth parent, but genetics would not be the priority because positive genetic traits often skip generations and genetic attributes are complex and difficult to predict. Zero population growth wouldn't mean two children to every couple. Some couples might be allowed multiple children while other couples might be allowed no children. Couples will have to compete for the right to have children. Most couples being granted child birthing or adoptive parental rights would be heterosexual but rights would also be granted to qualifying gay couples. The welfare of children would be a priority. I asked about obstetrical practices. Presently medical birthing practices in the U.S. are designed to traumatize mother and child alike; this is more Illuminati interference. The Disciples of Deus claim that obstetrics would be reformed to make it less traumatizing.

Step Eleven. The International Space Colonization Agency is established within the F.I.T. organization. The only way that Earth's population can expand beyond seven billion limit is through space colonization. This will become the priority for nationalistic and corporate activity. The highest paid individuals will be scientists who can advance the technology for space colonization. Much of the wealth of the Earth will be directed toward the I.S.C.A..

Step Twelve. The International Space Force is established within the F.I.T. organization. The members of the I.S.F. will come from all F.I.T. member nations and no one nation will be allowed to dominate. The purpose of the I.S.F. will be as follows: To keep the peace between the various space colonies that will develop. To assist in the welfare of the space colonies. To prevent asteroids from hitting the Earth. To protect humanity from invading extraterrestrials. To conduct space exploration in this solar system and beyond.

Note: The above is my understanding of the plan as described to me. I had three meetings with members of the Disciples of Deus. The first meeting explained the basic idea. During the second meeting I took notes. At that meeting they made some suggestions about what information they wanted in this article. They also indicated a respect for my own personal interpretation of the Deus Plan. In the third meeting they checked my draft of this article and approved it for accuracy of information. They also transmitted and submitted a copy of this article to the computer Deus at that meeting. It replied quickly with its approval. I have to say that these meetings were rather intense. Other than publishing this article on the internet I am in no way a member of or affiliated with the Disciples of Deus. I am not responsible for any actions covert or overt taken by the Disciples of Deus. I have no way to make further contact with the Disciples of Deus. It is my understanding that the Disciples of Deus will have no other direct contact with me in the future. Although it seems unlikely, the Disciples of Deus seem to feel that they have the power to actualize the Deus Plan and to put an end the Illuminati plan for WW III. Only time will tell what, if anything, will come of publishing this article. I have prayed about this and my faith tells me that I am doing the right thing.
